Abbotsford Celebrates Canada's Agriculture Day with Farm Crawl Bus Tour

ABBOTSFORD, Feb. 2, 2017 – The City of Abbotsford is pleased to invite residents to attend a Farm Crawl bus tour to celebrate Canada's Agriculture Day, announced Mayor Braun today.

The 'Farm Crawl' bus tour will showcase Abbotsford's thriving agriculture industry featuring several of Abbotsford's well-known agricultural destinations, including EcoDairy, Janzen's Poultry Farm, Singletree Winery, Restaurant 62 and Fieldhouse Brewing. Residents who attend will join Mayor Braun, City Council and staff on the tour, which includes complimentary wine, beer and food sampling.

"Abbotsford is home to the most productive land in Canada, which translates into over 11,000 full-time jobs and $1.8 billion in economic expenditures," said Braun. "Canada's Agriculture Day is a great opportunity to highlight why Abbotsford is the hub for Agri-business in Canada."

Canada's Agriculture Day takes place across the country on February 16, 2017, with a focus on Canada's agriculture industry through a variety of local events showing appreciation for Canadian food and drink products. More information is available at agriculturemorethanever.ca.

Abbotsford residents can register and purchase tickets online for the Farm Crawl bus tour at www.abbotsford.ca/farmcrawl.
