Canada 150 Roving Exhibit Debuts at City Council

Abbotsford – May 9, 2017 – The Abbotsford Canada150 Roving Exhibit was unveiled at City Council on May 8, 2017.

The Canada150 Roving Exhibit tells nine historic community stories, including the Abbotsford Lumber Company and Mill Lake, Gur Sikh Temple, Trethewey House, Clayburn Village, First Nations, Great Northern Railway, Mennonite Heritage, South Poplar Schoolhouse and the Abbotsford International Airport.

Organizations and businesses wishing to book the Canada150 Roving Exhibit to be on display at their place of business or for an event can contact econdev@abbotsford.ca and the schedule of the display can be viewed at www.abbotsford.ca/canada150calendar.

The Canada150 Community Calendar showcases Canada150 community events within Abbotsford. Organizations and businesses are encouraged to submit their Canada150 event into the calendar, inviting the community to celebrate Canada150 with them.

The City of Abbotsford collaborated with community organizations to create the Canada150 Roving Exhibit including the Reach Gallery Museum, MSA Museum Society, Centre for Indo Canadian Studies, Clayburn Village, Abbotsford School District, and The Mennonite Heritage Society.

These Canada150 initiatives in Abbotsford are possible due to the $45,000 grant received from the Federal Government under the Celebration and Commemoration Program Canada 150 Fund. This grant is provided to help Abbotsford celebrate Canada150. For more information on Canada150 events and the Roving Exhibit, please visit www.abbotsford.ca/canada150calendar.
