100th Anniversary of First World War

Abbotsford, April 30, 2014 –In an effort to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of WWI, Abbotsford Mayor Bruce Banman, City Council, local veterans of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch #15 and Wings of Life Preschool planted 100 poppies at the Cenotaph at Civic Plaza.

More than 425,000 Canadians served overseas during the First World War, putting their lives on the line and altering the course of Canadian history.
