Fire Crews Attend Fire at Mann Farms

ABBOTSFORD, BC: July 14, 2014 –At 00:53 am on July 14, Abbotsford Fire Rescue Services (ARFS) responded to a report of a structure fire at 790 McKenzie Road, location of Mann Farms operations.

Upon arrival, fire crews found the Mann Farms Market building with heavy fire through the roof of the structure. It took crews a number of hours to get the fire under control.

Crews are still on scene and are focused on ensuring the fire is out. The market building has sustained extensive damage, and the total cost of damages is unknown at this time.

A fire investigator is currently on scene. The cause of the fire is unknown, but is being treated as suspicious.

Sixty AFRS staff and 16 units responded to this incident. One AFRS staff member was transported to Abbotsford Regional Hospital for possible heat related illness and was later released.
