

Certification on Installation for Heating System

Location: _____

This is to certify that the installation of the heating system for the dwelling located at the above noted property has been installed to conform to "good engineering practice", as required by the BC Building Code and in accordance with the certified design.

Manuals for all equipment and a copy of the maintenance requirements for all heating system components which require periodic maintenance have been deposited in the mechanical room for the owner's information.

Certified this _____ day of _____ 20_____

Heating Contractor: _____

Business Licence #: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Signature: _____

Print name: _____