

Examples of Spill Containment

The following images are examples of different types of acceptable spill containment practices. These images are provided for information purposes only and are not all inclusive. The City of Abbotsford or District of Mission does not recommend/endorse any specific supplier of spill containment materials. Suppliers of spill containment materials can be found in the yellow pages or through performing an internet search. Examples of web searches include, but are not limited to, the following: "Plastic Containers Abbotsford", "Plastic Containers Mission", "Secondary Containment", or "Spill Containment".
