Involve Abbotsford Symposium

Abbotsford – November 8, 2017 - The Involve Abbotsford symposium, a free one-day event which connects organizations in our community to share information, is being held on Thursday November 30, 2017 at the Matsqui Centennial Auditorium.

The Symposium brings together not for profits, sports groups, arts groups, and community service groups, to learn and share information about the best in organizational practice, business administration, and to network, support, and gain professional knowledge that is crucial to sustainable operations.

Symposium participants will have the opportunity to network with local professionals in various fields, build community connections, attend informative workshops, and hear from an inspirational keynote speaker, Christina Benty, the owner of Strategic Leadership Solutions, a consulting firm designed to assist teams in building a culture of excellence in leadership and governance.

The symposium will be held on November 30, 2017 at the Matsqui Centennial Auditorium from 9:30am to 3:15pm. Registration is free and available online at www.abbotsford.ca/involve.
